They Have Secured Old Masonic Temple and Are Remodeling It.

Salt Lake Aerie, No. 67, F. O. E., has secured the old Masonic temple at Sec-ond South and West Temple streets, and is making preparations to have one of the finest clubhouses of any order in the The room, which was used for the Masonic banquet room, will be transformed into a billiard hall, the banquet hall of the Eagles being placed in the room which faces both streets. The partitions have all been torn out, and two large assembly rooms will be formed.

The furniture for the hall will cost $6000, while the repairs and general expense will run this are expensed.

pense will run this up several thousand more. Fine works of art and other orna-mentation will be put in, and the whole affair will be arranged on a magnificent scale.
The Eagles are now the second largest order in Sait Lake, having a membership of over 450, and it is expected to double this within the next year. A special dispensation has been in effect for some time now, and will continue until the last of October. The crusade for new members has been vigorous, and has re-sulted in a decided increase in the order.

WAS SCHOOL TEACHER

Dead Man Found at Layton Positively Identified.

is now believed by the authorities that the man whose mangled body was found on the Oregon Short Line track near Layton Thursday morning was John L. Atkinson of Saylersville, Ky.

J. W. Gray, a Salt Lake clothier, and a salesman in his employ named Hall went to Layton and all but positively identified the dead man as Atkinson. He had purchased certain articles of clothing from them on the day before he met his death. The gold ring bearing the monogram "J. L. A.," found near the re-mains, also assisted in establishing the identification.
Atkinson was about two years ago a school teacher at Layton and was well known in that vicinity.

SHAY CAUSES TROUBLE

Attempted, is Is Said, to Defy Entire Bingham Police Force.

Special to The Tribune. BINGHAM, Sept. 15.—A man named Shay was arrested tonight after an at-tempt-on his part to defy the entire po-lice force. Shay appeared at police headquarters in defense of his partner, Me-quarters in defense of his partner, Me-Phee, who was accused of stealing a watch. Things did not go to suit him and he precipitated trouble, it is said, by insulting Officer Joffs and Chief Grant. He was taken to the city jail and there raised such a disturbance that he was placed in the back cell. He broke the lock of the cell door and had to be roughly handled before he surrendered. The charges preferred are insulting an officer and disturbing the peace.

THIEF HAS MOT RUN

Steals Bolt of Cloth and Lands in City Prison.

A young man giving the name of Harry Hogan, at 9 o'clock Saturday night, snatched a bolt of dry goods from a counter of the People's Cash store and made off down First South street with it, hotly pursued by two of the salesmen who had witnessed the theft. Seeing that he was about to be captured, the thief threw the stolen property away and continued his flight.

The pursuit led across Main street and the fugitive darted into the Clipper saloon, one of the salesmen at his heels. The crowd grabbed him as he rushed into the place and he was held prisoner until Officer Davidson arrived and took him to the station. He was charged with petty to the station. He was charged with petty
